SEC. 36. Every person who shall permit any gaming table, bank, or device, to be set up or used for the purpose of gaming in any house, building, shed, booth, shelter, lot, or other premises to him belonging, or by him occupied, or of which he hath at the time the possession or control, shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by imprisonment in the city jail or work house for not more than one year nor less than thirty days or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or less than fifty dollars.

SEC. 37. Every person appearing or acting as master or mistress or having the care, use or management, for the time, of any prohibited gaming table, bank or device, shall be deemed a keeper thereof, and every person who shall appear or act as master or mistress, or having the care, use, or management of any house or building in which any gaming table, bank, or device is set up, or kept, or of any gaming house, brothel, or bawdy house, shall be deemed the keeper thereof.

SEC. 38. Every person who shall bet any money or property upon any gaming table, bank, or any other gambling device, or shall bet upon any game played at or by means of any gaming table or other gambling device, or who shall loan or furnish any money or property to any other person to be bet as aforesaid, and the same shall be so used, or who shall in any manner be interested in any such playing or betting at such device, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars nor less than ten dollars.

SEC. 39. If any person shall play at any game, whatsoever, for money, property or gain, with cards, dice, or any other device which may be adapted to or used in playing any game of chance, or in which chance is a material element, or shall bet or wager on the hands or cards or sides of such as do play as aforesaid, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars.

SEC. 40. Every person who shall live in a state of open and notorious adultery, and every man and woman, one or both of whom are married, and not to each other, who shall lewdly and lasciviously abide and cohabit with each other, and every person, married or unmarried, who shall be guilty of open, gross lewdness or lascivious behavior, or of any open and notorious act of public indecency, grossly scandalous, shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding one year or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 41. Any person who shall keep or use, or in any way be connected with, or interested in, the management of or shall receive money for the admission of any person to, any place kept or used for the purpose of fighting or baiting any bull, bear, dog, cock or other creature, and any person who shall encourage, aid or assist, or be present threat, or who shall permit or suffer any place belonging to him or under his control to be so kept or used, shall on conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the city jail not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 42. Every person who shall exhibit any stallion, jack, or bull within the limits of the city, or who shall hitch any such animal upon any of the streets of said city shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars or be punished by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding three months or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 43. No person shall keep a male horse or a jack for teasing and serving mares at the time of such teasing and service, within three hundred yards of any school house, college or church; nor shall such teasing and service be done near a public highway or a residence other than that of the owner of such animal, unless the same is so surrounded by artificial or natural barriers as to obstruct the view of persons traveling such highway or residing at such residence. All persons violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding one year or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 44. If any person shall carry concealed upon or about his person any deadly or dangerous weapon, or shall go into any church or place where people have assembled for religious worship, or into any school-room or place where people are assembled for educational, literary, or social purposes, or to any election precinct on any election day or into any court room during the sitting of court, or into any other public assemblage of persons met for any lawful purpose, other than for militia drill or meeting called under the militia law of this state, having upon or about his person any kind of fire-arms, bowie-knife, dirk, dagger, slung-shot or other deadly weapon or shall in the presence of one or more person, exhibit any such weapon in a rude, angry, or threatening manner, or shall have or carry any such weapon upon or about his person when intoxicated, or under the influence of intoxicating drinks, or shall directly or indirectly, sell or deliver, loan or barter, to any minor any such weapon, without the consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, he shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not less than five days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 45. The next preceding section shall not apply to police officers, nor to any officer or person whose duty it is to execute process or warrants, or to suppress breaches of the peace, or make arrests, nor to persons moving or traveling peaceably through the city, and it shall be a good defense to the charge of carrying such weapon, if the defendant shall know that he has been threatened with great bodily harm, or has good reason to carry the same in the necessary defense of his person, home, or property.

SEC. 46. Any person who shall within the city limits assault, beat, or wound another, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 47. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to turn loose upon and drive along or over, any of the streets, highways or alleys of the city of Butler, any horses, mules or other animals, or suffer the same to be driven thereon, faster than a walk, and any person so doing shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 48. No person shall ride or run any bicycle, tricycle or other like vehicle, along or over the streets, alleys or public grounds of the city of Butler, at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 49. Any person, minor or adult, who shall climb upon, hold to, or in any manner attach himself to any locomotive, engine or car, while the same shall be in motion, or running through the city of Butler, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, that this section shall not apply to any employee of the railroad company, nor to any passenger nor to any other person who may be acting by permission or under the rules of the company then operating the road.

SEC. 50. Any person or persons convicted of driving, leading, or transporting, uncaged, any bear or savage animal, wild by nature, through, or in, the city of Butler, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to the same punishment as prescribed in the next preceding section.

SEC. 51. If any person shall carry on or transact any business or occupation without license therefor, when such license is required by any ordinance of the city, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and when no other punishment is prescribed for such offense, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding three months or both.

SEC. 52. If any officer of the city shall be intoxicated while in the performance of any official act or duty, or shall become so intoxicated as to be incapacitated to perform any official act or duty at the time and in the manner required of him in the discharge of the duties of his office, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and punishment by imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment and shall in addition to such fine be subject to impeachment and removal from office as by ordinance provided.

SEC. 53. Every person who may be found loitering around houses of ill-fame, gambling houses, or places where liquors are sold or drank, without visible means of support, or shall attend or operate any gambling device or apparatus, or be engaged in practicing any trick or device to procure money or other thing of value, or shall be engaged in any unlawful calling whatever, and every able-bodied married man who shall neglect or refuse to provide for the support of his family, and every person found tramping or wandering around from place to place without visible means of support, shall be deemed a vagrant, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the city jail not less than twenty days, or by a fine not less than twenty dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 54. If any person shall torture, torment, deprive of necessary sustenance, cruelly beat, mutilate,
