ORDINANCE NO. 31.

Article 1.

An Ordinance in Relation to Public Peace and Order.

Be it Ordained by the Council of the City of Richmond, as Follows:

Section 1. "Sparring and Boxing." That any person who shall within this city engage in any public sparring or boxing exhibition, or who shall aid, abet or assist in any such exhibition, or who shall furnish any room or other place for such exhibition, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Any person fined, imprisoned or detained in the city prison upon the charge of violating any of the ordinances of the city who shall escape or attempt to escape, or break or injure said prison shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Any person working out any fine or costs on the street or other places of the city who shall escape or attempt to escape from any person having him in charge shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall convey into the city prison any instrument useful to aid any person to escape from said prison shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. Any three or more persons who shall assemble together in this city with the intent, or being assembled shall agree mutually to aid one another, to do any unlawful act, with force or violence, against the person or property of another, or against the peace or to the terror of the people, such persons so assembled and each of them, shall be deemed guilty of an unlawful assembly, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Sec. 6. Every person who shall willfully, maliciously or contemptuously disquiet or disturb any camp meeting, congregation or other assembly, met for religious worship, or when meeting at the place of worship, or dispersing therefrom, or any school or other meeting or assembly of people met together for any lawful purpose whatever by making a noise, or by rude and indecent behavior or profane discourse within the place of assembly or so near the same to interrupt or disturb the solemnity thereof, or who shall willfully menace, threaten or assault any person there being, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the city prison not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 7. If any person or persons shall willfully disturb the peace of any neighborhood, or of any family or of any person, by loud and unusual noise, loud and offensive or indecent conversation, or by threatening, quarrelling, challenging or fighting, every person so offending shall upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city prison not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 8. Every person who shall within this city, steal, take or carry away any money or personal property or effects of another under the value of thirty dollars, not being a subject of grand larceny, without regard to value, shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the city prison not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 9. If two or more persons in any public place in this city voluntarily or by agreement engage in any fight, or use any blows or violence toward each other in any angry or quarrelsome manner or do each other any mischief, or if any person shall assault another and strike him, in any public place, to the terror or disturbance of others, the person or persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of an affray and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the city prison not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 10. If any person shall carry, concealed upon or about his person any deadly or dangerous weapon, or shall go into any church or place where people have assembled for religious worship, or into any school room where people have assembled for educational, literary or social purposes, or to any election precinct on any election day, or into any court room during the setting of court, or into any other public assemblage of persons met for lawful purpose, other than for military drill or meetings called under the militia law of this state, having upon or about his person, any kind of fire-arms, bowie knife, dirk, dagger, slung shot or other deadly weapon, or shall, in the presence of one or more persons, exhibit such weapon in a rude, angry and threatening manner, or shall have or carry any such weapon upon or about his person when intoxicated or under the influence of intoxicating drink, or shall directly or indirectly loan or barter to any minor, any such weapon without the consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city prison not less than five days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 11. Whoever shall challenge, threaten, curse, abuse, assault, strike, beat, wound, fight or offer to fight in any manner, any other person or persons, or who shall use profane, obscene, offensive, abusive, violent, or threatening language towards any other person or persons, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. If any person shall run or cause to be run upon any street, lane, avenue, alley or other public place within this city, any horse or horses, so as to interrupt travelers thereon, or put to fright the horses or other animals by them ridden or driven, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Every person found guilty of a violation of an offense in this ordinance, or found guilty of a misdemeanor as defined by this ordinance and where no other penalty is provided shall be fined a sum not less than one dollar or more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 14. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Sec. 15. This ordinance to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved this 21st day of December, 1910.

JAMES POWELL,
Mayor.

Attest:—J. W. KIRKPATRICK. City Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 32.

Article 2.

An Ordinance in Relation to Public Morals and Decency.

Be it Ordained by the Council of the City of Richmond, as Follows:

Section 1. That any person who shall be found upon or appear on any public street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, or any business house, or other public place within the corporate limits of the City of Richmond, in a state of intoxication or drunkenness, or any person who shall be staggering about any of the aforesaid places, while under the influence of intoxicating drinks or stimulents, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 2. Any woman who shall prostitute herself within this city, or who shall receive any man or men into any house, room, tent or place she may occupy, or any man or woman who shall resort to or be found in any house, room or other place for the purpose of prostitution or fornication, and any man who shall knowingly occupy or live in a bawdy house or house of assignation, or who shall pimp or solicit for any bawdy house or house of assignation or for any prostitute or prostitutes shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall keep or maintain any disorderly house or room, and any person suffering or permitting to assemble or congregate in or about his house or place of business, idle, vicious, drunken, quarreling, hallooing or swearing person or persons making such noises as to disturb the peace of the neighborhood, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Every person who shall knowingly lease or let to another, any house or other building for the purpose of being used or kept as a gaming house, brothel or bawdy
